MASON COUNTY IS FAR BEHIND IN RED CROSS MEMBERS

Indications Today Are That Mason
County's Third Red Cross Roll Call Will Close Tonight With
the County Far Behind
Its Quota.

Chairman H. C. Curran, of the Red Cross Third Roll Call in Mason county, sent out the S. O. S. call to his precinct workers this morning when the last day in the campaign was started with the county even below half the quota assigned to us.

The precinct workers have been greatly interfered with in their campaign and there may be many people in Maysville and in the country districts who have not yet been seen but these people are urged to see their workers today if at all possible and turn in their membership subscriptions. The price of a membership in the Red Cross is but one dollar and there is not a person in Mason county who should not be a contributing member to this most worthy organization. No organization through the World War did greater service to the soldiers and to their families and no organization has a greater task before them now that the war is over than the Red Cross.

Because the war has been won is no reason that the Red Cross is not in need of funds to continue their great work and every Maysville resident,
who has not yet joined the Red Cross
for 1920 by the payment of one dollar, is urged to see their precinct worker today or leave their subscription at the office of the County Chairman, Mr.
H. C. Curran at DeNuzie Book store
in Market street.

Remember that today is the last day of the big campaign. Mason county's quota is 4500 members and at present there are less than 2000 subscribed.
Obey that impulse of your heart and invest a dollar in the Red Cross today.

RUSH ON HUNTING LICENSE

County Clerk James J. Owens and his deputies are now being kept quite busy at issuing hunting licenses to the large number of folks who are anxious to get into the field as soon after the rabbit law is lifted as possible. The law will be out on next Saturday, November 15, and it is expected that Monday will find the fields full. It is understood that rabbits are very plentiful.

County Agent George Kirk is in Dayton, Ohio, today on business.

WINDOW GLASS SPECTACLES NOT DANGEROUS

If you had your choice between giving up everything you have in this world and losing your eyesight, I am sure you would keep your eyes. Trouble is we never think of these things until we're brought face to face with them. Many people buy spectacles from peddlers that do more harm than window glass spectacles. If you value your eyes, consult only a reliable sight specialist. Come to

BRE' RABBIT WILL HAVE TO LOOKOUT

The rabbit season will open in Mason County November 15, 1919, and continue until the first of the year. Good hunting is reported in several parts of this section of the state and the local Nimrods are getting anxious to start out on the annual "Bunny hunt."—Daily In-

COLORED MAN FALLS ON STREET AND DIES SOON

Cart Driver Suffers an Attack of Acute Indigestion and Dies Within Ten Minutes After Being Taken
to His Home.

Amos Bertha, aged 32, colored cart driver, suffered an attack of acute indigestion on Forest avenue about 7 o'clock Monday night when returning to his home after a visit to the home of his mother. So severe was the attack that he was stricken to the sidewalk. Passerby went immediately to his assistance and Mr. Charles Sweet with the local Parcel Post delivery auto happened to be near. Bertha was placed in the automobile and rushed
to his home.

Dr. Patton was immediately summoned but the man died within ten minutes after the arrival of the physician at his home.

Bertha had not been subject to attacks of this sort. He was a very quiet sort of colored man and had many friends. He is survived by his wife and several children.

COUNTY'S COURSE OF STUDY HAS ARRIVED

After more than two months of school, County Superintendent Turnips announced this morning that the Course of Study for county schools had just arrived and had been distributed among the school teachers.
Although some of all the new school books have been distributed among the students, local dealers have not yet been able to get a supply of the new books large enough to supply all of the county students.

IRATE FATHER WAS TOO LATE

About supper time Monday an irate father without coat or hat came rushing into police headquarters saying that he wanted his daughter and a certain young man of the West end of the city placed under arrest to keep them from obtaining marriage license. The father said his daughter was only 16 years of age. Investigation, however, disclosed that the couple had been granted marriage license early in the afternoon and had been married by County Judge Purnell.

BURIAL THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Waldo L. Perry was held in Cincinnati at the home of his parents Monday and the body was brought here over the C. & O. at noon today and taken direct to the Maysville cemetery where burial was made.

ARMISTICE DAY

Thanks be to God! Not ours the victory;
Not ours the arm that guided down those days
Of darkness to the light of liberty
To God—to God be praise.

Those long, dark days the Allied nations trod
Through disappointment, doubt, and hard delays,
Whom men had questioned: "Where is now thy God?"
And now—to Him be praise!

For many hearts in prayer unceasing sought
As Moses did of old the help that stays,
Now comes the answer past our highest thought—
Then give to God thy praise.

Now are the mighty fallen! We who see
Can-but stand still in silence and amaze,
Humbled alone the joy of victory—
To God alone be praise!

Oh, ring ye bells of triumph and rejoice.
This is the day the Lord hath made! Then raise
This glad Thanksgiving, both with heart and voice—
And give to God the praise.

SHOE FACTORY MAY BE LOCATED HERE IN NEAR FUTURE

Representatives of Large Shoe Manufacturers Here Today in Conference With Chamber of Commerce Officials in Regard to Locating Plant in Maysville.

Representatives of the Kenworth
Shoe Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were in Maysville today in conference with officials of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce and Mayor Thomas M. Russell in regard to locating a branch shoe factory in this city in the immediate future which would give employment to quite a number of skilled workmen and at the same time give employment to quite a number of Maysville citizens.

A factory, the size of the one proposed for Maysville, would employ about fifty or seventy-five skilled mechanics who would be moved here by the company with their families and at the same time give employment to about that number Maysville men and young women.

It is thought that there will be little trouble in finding a location for the company's plant but the big problem will be in housing the people the factory will bring to Maysville.

This company owns the patent rights to a new process of shoe manufacturing in which no tacks or nails are used in the making of the shoes.
All of the shoes are leather and of the best quality so that all persons employed by the factory would command
a good salary.

The matter will be taken up immediately by the Chamber of Commerce and it is thought that the factory will be located in Maysville in a very short time.

FERRY BOAT WILL BE PART OF FIRE EQUIPMENT

Mayor Induces Captain Stalder to Keep Lanchon on Maysville Side of River to Be Used For Transporting Fire Engine.

Again this morning the city water pressure was far below normal and the city officials became considerably worried about conditions fearing that if a serious fire should break out and the wind were blowing, a big conflagration would develop.

Mayor Russell called on Captain Stalder, of the Aberdeen-Maysville ferry this morning and asked him if it were possible to anchor the Lanchon on the Maysville side of the river for a time so that it could be used as a fire boat if necessary. Captain Stalder immediately agreed to do this and further agreed that if the fire department would call him by phone at any time he would have the boat ready for moving within five minutes as a fire
is kept up all during the night.

The ferry would be used to haul the large pumping engine to the foot of the street nearest the fire and would pump water from the river when on the deck of the ferry boat direct to the fire. This arrangement brings much relief to large property owners who have been in fear of disastrous fires.

SCHOOL KIDDIES ENJOY ARMISTICE DAY HOLIDAY

The Maysville school children today enjoyed Armistice Day holiday very much. The day was observed generally as a great holiday and most every one wanted to tell of some of his experiences just one year ago today when Maysville was shaken by such a demonstration as she had never seen before.

WED WEDNESDAY AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH

vited to witness the ceremony.

GREEN SAYS SHOW IS GOOD ONE

ARMISTICE DAY IS CELEBRATED HERE BY ALL CITIZENS

Open Air Gathering at Band Stand Is Great Success—Hon. M. J. Hennessey Makes Stirring Patriotic Address to Great Throng.

The first anniversary of Armistice Day was celebrated extensively in Maysville today. In obedience to Mayor Russell's proclamation all citizens observed the day as a general holiday.
There was no school and the banks were closed all day while the most of the stores and shops closed for the afternoon or during the exercises.

County Judge H. P. Purnell was chairman of the meeting and after music by the Boys' Band, called the large crowd to attention. In a short address, Judge Purnell presented to Lester H. Arthur Post American Legion a beautiful stand or American colors which was given the Post by Mr.
and Mrs. C. C. Arthur, parents of the first Mason county boy to give his life in the world war, for whom the local post has been named. Mr. Harry Otto, chairman of the local post, received the colors on behalf of the post. The American colors were raised on the municipal flag pole as the Boys' Band played "The Star Spangled Banner", and the entire audience stood with heads uncovered.

Judge Purnell introduced the chief speaker of the afternoon, Hon. M. J.
Hennessey, as one of the greatest orators in this section of the state and before Mr. Hennessey had finished every person in the sound of his voice
was ready to agree fully with Judge Purnell. While Mr. Hennessey has spoken in Maysville hundreds of times on various subjects, this was the first time he had been heard by a local audience on patriotic topics and he certainly out did himself.

Taken in all the exercises were a great success and the officials of the local Post American Legion are to be congratulated upon the success of the day.

Mr. H. C. Curran, chairman of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, made a plea to the audience for more members to the Red Cross. From Mason county and as soon as the meeting at the band stand was adjourned, a large number of people found his office and enlisted.

The Civic Improvement Club will meet Wednesday evening at Mrs. Chas.
Howe on East Fourth street. Everyone is asked to be present, business of importance.

STRIKE CALLED OFF BY UNION OFFICIALS

Union Miners Obey Mandate of the Federal Court and Call Off
Big Strike.

Indianapolis, November 11. — The call for the strike of bituminous coal miners of the nation will be withdrawn.

"We will comply with the mandate of the court. We do this under protest. We are Americans. We cannot fight our government."

This was the statement issued by John L. Lewis, acting president, early today, following an 18-hour conference with other union leaders at the Hotel Lincoln here.

The order withdrawing the strike
call will be presented to Judge A. B.
Anderson in Federal Court before noon today.

In a voice shaken with emotion,
Lewis pronounced the words that will officially end the strike of 400,000 coal miners, started November 1.

Lewis plainly showed the strain under which he had been laboring for the last 10 days. His face was lined and tired, his voice husky and his hair disheveled.

When members of the Executive Council, scale committee and the district presidents of the United Mineworkers of America emerged from the meeting room, they showed the effects of a hard fight. They were sullen and tired. They went to their rooms immediately, and all refused to add to Lewis' statement.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

THE NEWSPRINT SHORTAGE

The newsprint paper supply is rapidly approaching a stage which will be fatal to many newspapers. The present demand is perhaps 25 per cent. greater than the supply, and prices are on a famine basis and going higher. At present rates of advertising it is impossible for most newspapers to make money.

If this situation were the result of manipulation or monopoly, it might be dealt with by the usual legal measures, though prosecution and legislation are disappointing in results. In fact, the present situation is the result of shortsighted attempts in the past to restrict the price of paper, which has kept capital out of manufacture, so that the industry now is not able to meet the publishers' needs.

The crisis can be met only by voluntary self-denial—unless it be allowed to develop until the weaker publishers go under. The Tribune is in a fortunate situation because it manufactures its own paper. But it believes it would be a national misfortune if newspaper or other publications of merit were victimized by this abnormal condition, perhaps even to the extent of being forced out of existence.

The Tribune believes, therefore, that the stronger publications should forego their advantage to a reasonable extent and enter into an agreement to curtail the consumption of newsprint paper. The agreement must be general and advertisers should give public spirited help by assenting to restrictions of space.

The Tribune would be glad to lead the movement for restriction, but has gone as far as it feels it is reasonable that it should go until a general agreement is put in force. It stands ready, however, to join in a general movement to bring consumption down to the level of supply and thus save a situation which must soon prove disastrous to many publications and a public misfortune.—Chicago Tribune.

Under the leadership of Senator Lodge, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the Senate has passed the bill extending for one year after peace shall have been concluded the present passport regulations governing entry of all into the United States. Reports from our diplomatic representatives from all over Europe indicate that hordes of undesirable individuals, including many Bolsheviks, are waiting to come to our shores the moment present restrictions are lifted. By a continuation of the law now in force our consuls in foreign ports will be enabled to vize passports before their holders take ship for this country. In that way they can much more effectively keep objectionable emigrants from America than can the immigration officials at our home ports.

SINCLAIR SOLUTION FOR H. C. L.

Congressman James H. Sinclair of North Dakota sees in the solution of the railroad question a means for attacking the high cost of living. He is giving close study to the various plans for reorganization that are now pending before Congress, with a view to giving his support to that scheme which will most nearly meet the needs of the people. Mr. Sinclair has recently had printed in the Congressional Record a discussion of the subject by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Woolley, with the hope that it will aid Congress in dealing with rail legislation. "A proper solution of the transportation problem," declares Mr. Sinclair, "will go far toward solving the question of the high cost of living and do much toward allaying the industrial unrest that is now in our country."

The promptness and decision with which Congress passed the prohibition enforcement bill over the Presidential veto were inspired by a determination to rebuke Mr. Wilson for undertaking to say that a law should not be enforced merely because he had asked its repeal by Congress, and had been refused.

LIMESTONE P-T. A.
HAS GOOD MEETING

The P-T. A. of the Limestone School held their monthly meeting Friday. Many of the members were present notwithstanding the uninviting condition of the weather.

Some very interesting talks were given by several of the members, especially the one given by the president, Mrs. Dr. Phillips in the interest of the Parent-Teachers Association, and the reading given by Mrs. Frank Lingenfelter on "The Health and Welfare of our Children."

The audience became very much pleased with the good as well as educating material put before them by the speakers, and the house dwelt in perfect silence throughout. After the speakers had reached their conclusion, several important business questions were put before the house by the president, for a general discussion, and the meeting was turned into a round table talk, each member taking part in the discussion, after which delicious refreshments were served, and the meeting adjourned.

The teacher, officers and members of the P-T. A. of the Limestone school extend a cordial invitation to all who wish to become a member, and a hearty welcoming back to those members who failed to be present at this meeting. These meetings are held at the school house the first Friday of each month and all members are urged to be present.

I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Edmund T. Perkins of Chicago, who will preside over the annual convention of the National Drainage Congress which is to meet at St. Louis today, is a celebrated engineer who has made a specialty of land irrigation and reclamation. A native of Virginia and a graduate of Union College, Mr. Perkins began his professional career as a topographer for the United States Geological Survey in 1885. For a quarter of a century he remained in the Government service, during the latter part of this period being employed as an engineer in the U. S. Reclamation Service. One of his most notable achievements was the laying out of a 300-mile system of wagon roads in the mountainous and unexplored regions of Idaho. He has been prominent in the affairs of the American Reclamation Federation and the Florida Everglades Engineering Commission, as well as the National Drainage Congress.

"FRECKLES" TO BE PRODUCED AT OPERA HOUSE

Gene Stratton Porter's Delightful Play Handled by Good Company Here Next Friday.

Those who have read Gene Stratton Porter's charming story "Freckles" and loved the nameless waif for his manly spirit, his light wit, Irish lore, and his beautiful songs; and who reverence the "Swamp Angel" for her beauty and her chaste, womanly character, will meet no disappointment in the play.

"Freckles" is proving still a greater success as a song play than the novel, which has been read by several million people.

It must not be understood that "Freckles" is a play essentially with a love motive, because it is not. There is plenty of action in the working out of its theme of the kind that "makes the pulse beat faster."

The play is great in its simplicity, the story is of absorbing interest, and an estimable example of the value of doing right against all temptation.

The Broadway Amusement Co.'s scenic production with an exceptionally strong cast of players and singers will be the attraction at the Washington Theater next Friday night, November 14. This is not a moving picture.

900 FLU CASES

REPORTED TO HEALTH SERVICE

Washington dispatches state that there were over 900 flu cases reported to the public health service last week.

This is an increase over the previous week, and as cold weather draws near authorities are worried.

A recent public health report says: "City officials, state and city boards of health should be prepared in event of a recurrence of the flu."

Even if one recovers from the flu, the after effects are terrible. The only sane thing to do is to prevent the flu. Influenza can be prevented; last year's results prove that. It is important that a good germicide should be used frequently. Turpo is an effective germicide, combining the old-fashioned remedies of turpentine (which has for years been known as the best home germicide), camphor-menthol and pure mineral base. As a prevention for flu, Turpo has been a pronounced success.

Snuff a little Turpo up the nostrils several times a day, and the flu germs will have little chance of getting a lodging and breeding place. Many physicians and hospitals use and recommend Turpo.

The fact that more than nine hundred cases of influenza have been reported to the United States Health Service makes it important that you prepare now. Buy a thirty cent jar of Turpo of your druggist now while he has a supply on hand, and use as directed.

If in spite of all precautions influenza develops, go to bed and summon a physician. Influenza is a serious malady, and requires the best medical attention.

What's Your Game? Is Title of Play In Which Adelaide Thurston Appears Saturday.

Ladies, if you never drank a cocktail, smoked a cigarette or swore in your life, would you do it to try to be your husband's ideal? Perhaps you would if you thought that was the type of woman he thought his ideal to be.

This is one of the situations in Sidney Toler and Marion Short's latest play of love and mystery, "What's Your Game?", in which Adelaide Thurston is starring this season and which will be the attraction at the Washington Theater on Saturday, November 15.

The action of "What's Your Game?" takes place in one of the fashionable Long Island colonies where Laura Fordham (Adelaide Thurston) is spending the summer months. To the home to spend the week-end has been invited Margie Potter, a friend of Charlie Fordham, the husband, and while enjoying this hospitality she aims to entangle the husband and compromise the wife. Fortunately the wife sees the danger lurking ahead and makes plans to meet it. Now she forestalls the work of those under her roof trying to plot against her, and the counter-game she institutes is told in the scenes that follow and the audience is kept in suspense as to the final outcome until the last curtain.

Supporting Miss Thurston in her new vehicle will be found Pauline Grell, Gordon Mitchell, Lynn Osborn, William Howatt and several other notable players.

"What's Your Game?" will be at the Washington Theatre on Saturday night, November 15, for one performance only.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better. In fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

WONDER IF MATT DIDN'T HAVE SOMETHING TO DO WITH IT

Frankfort, Ky., November 10.—If Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, of Georgetown, makes the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator next year, Matt Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture, will make the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Farmers in this and adjoining counties are starting a boom for him. A meeting was held here today in the interest of Cohen's candidacy, which was attended by farmers.

They believe that Cohen would serve their interests in the National House of Representatives, basing this contention on the fact that during his term as Commissioner of Agriculture he has devoted his time and energy in their behalf.

FRITZI SCHEFF INSISTED ON PLAYING IN KENTUCKY

Prima Donna Appearing Here Tonight Had Manager Change Schedule to Include Kentucky Cities—Visited Husband's Grave Yesterday.

Fritzi Scheff, the great Musical Comedy star who appears at the Washington tonight in "Gloriana," had her manager change her schedule so that she might play Lexington and Maysville on the present trip because of her love for the old state of Kentucky.

The Lexington Herald says: "I love Lexington," said Miss Scheff last night. "There is something about your town that gets in one's blood and when I discovered that my route called for a jump to Knoxville instead of the Blue Grass I insisted that it be changed. In consequence we are playing several one-night stands in the small Kentucky towns and the trip is very hard, but I am more than glad to do it and feel amply repaid for the additional trouble in the splendid reception that has been accorded my play here."

Miss Scheff came in by way of Paris Monday morning and visited the grave of John Fox, Jr., to whom she was married several years ago and subsequently divorced.

She declared after the performance that it had so unnerved her as to make a continuation of the performance difficult. "Mr. Fox's memory meant so much to me," she said with tears in her eyes, "and the horrible coincidence of this flippant widow's part I have to play following the trip to his grave and the memories engendered by a return to this beautiful country, where we spent so many happy hours together, made me absolutely miserable."

Eyes that flashed over the footlights to enthrall the hardest of the theater-going critics brimmed over with real tears, and there was a sob in the voice that had thrilled so gloriously when she finished.

"But, anyway," she smiled, "the warmth of the reception tonight took a great deal of the sting out of my gloomy spell and made me love Kentucky more than ever."

CARD PARTY IS SUCCESS

The "500" and Bridge party given by the Daughters of Confederacy Monday evening was a most enjoyable and successful affair. Over a hundred people patronized the entertainment in spite of the rain. The Daughters wish to extend sincere and grateful thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Watkins for their many kindnesses which rendered the gathering such an unqualified success. Thanks are also due the Washington Opera House management for the publicity given the entertainment on the screen.

The negro boy also was cut, and it is claimed that the men were engaged in a quarrel when the stabbing occurred.

CHILD WELFARE REPORT SOON TO BE ANNOUNCED

Conditions of Children in Kentucky Are to Described Soon—Investigators Have Been Here.

According to a statement given out Sunday by Raymond G. Fuller, editorial secretary of the National Child Labor Committee, the report of the committee on "Child Welfare in Kentucky" will be ready for distribution in about ten days.

"The keynotes of this report," Mr. Fuller said, "is the idea that child welfare is a profitable bill of investment for any state." "The report," he added, "is a letter written at the request of Kentucky people to all the people of Kentucky suggesting that more stock be taken in the enterprise. It describes existing conditions affecting children in respect to health, schooling, play, labor, dependency, delinquency and so on, gives an analysis of State laws and administration and outlines a comprehensive legislative program."

The National Child Labor Committee made the survey of conditions in Kentucky upon an invitation from the Kentucky Child Labor Association, the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the State Board of Health, the Louisville Welfare League and other Kentucky agencies and through its report is giving such assistance as is possible to the people of the State in their efforts in behalf of child welfare.

Sparking of the National Child Labor Committee, Mr. Fuller said it was organized by a citizen of Alabama, Edgar Gardner Murphy, and in 1903 was incorporated by Congress as an organization for the promotion and standardization of child labor legislation.

"It does not claim infallibility," Mr. Fuller said, "indeed, its principal recommendation in this instance is that some body of Kentucky citizens be designated by the Governor to consider the whole field of child welfare legislation and formulate a program thoroughly adapted to the State. The findings and recommendations in the report are for the use of the citizens of Kentucky themselves, such use as they may see fit to make of them."

"While the National Child Labor Committee opposes child labor," Mr. Fuller said in closing, "it favors children's work. 'Children's work' becomes child labor, however, when it is too severe, too monotonous, or when it deprives children of education and play.

"The wage earning function of the family or of the community does not belong to the children. It is the duty of parents to see to it that the poverty of society does not rob the children of their rightful opportunities."

"Through mothers' pensions children's scholarship and in other ways society can make it possible for children to go to school and in this manner be helped out of poverty."

TOM MOORE PROVES HE'S NO TENDERFOOT

"Let's walk a bit. I left my shock absorbers at home," says Tom Moore in his new Goldwyn Picture, "Go West, Young Man." The incident is only one of the amusing moments in the comedy-drama which comes to the Pastime tomorrow. It grows out of the unusual situation in which young Dick Latham finds himself.

The pampered son of rich parents, he leaves home as the result of a quarrel, and through a series of amazing adventures finds himself, after an incredibly short time, the rough and ready sheriff of a wild Western town. Riding is difficult, banding a gun is harder still and reforming the town seems hard at the outset, but isn't.

It is when Dick is riding with Rosa (played by Ora Carew), a true daughter of the mountains and plains, that he voices the confession that riding is not his forte. Just what he means by shock absorbers is not hard to imagine. He is sore all over. But when the time comes Dick by no means is a tenderfoot. He is able to cope with the most desperate situations, as every well-ordered screen hero should.

FRITZI SCHEFF HERE TONIGHT IN MUSICAL COMEDY

Famous Prima Donna Returns to Musical Comedy and Favors Maysville With Her Appearance Tonight.

She's been away—and now she is coming back to her real love—musical comedy! And everybody should be glad for it is none other than our ever-adorable Fritzi Scheff who strayed from the "tulkies" or is it the singles!—over to the movies, and who is now returning to the fold in John Cort's rainbow division of musical comedy, "Gloriana," coming to the Washington Opera House tonight.

Fritzi Scheff is one of the favorites who deserted the footlights for the studio and "Location." She was captivated by the new sport—and its attendant salary. After her first week at camera work, she wrote a very dear friend: "My work today has consisted of padding in a woodland brook, while the cameramen were turning their little machines. For three days I have been working on a private yacht, and just think of drawing the salary they pay me for this!"

At first she was amazed that such things were possible and as delighted as a youngster with a brand new toy. But her return to world of bright lights, jolly songs and sprightly dances tells a new story. Fritzi is back in the fold! After all the fun of motion picture work, after the big salary and new experiences, Miss Scheff is back where she belongs.

And in the interim, a fling at vaudeville failed to quench the longing Fritzi Scheff had for musical comedy. Too longed for a company to surround her. But the proper vehicle was not to be had just then it seemed. And when John Cort offered her the star role, she was still in the throes of the two-a-day and a contract stipulated that she must finish a certain number of weeks. So Mr. Cort placed "Gloriana" on Broadway without Fritzi. But now, the contract having fulfilled its bright and radiant star, and the adorable Fritzi is happy to be back again—even as the playgoers are happy to have her back.

A success even without Miss Scheff, "Gloriana" has proven to be the proverbial "riot" with her as Gloriana Grey. And so that's why everybody should be glad—Fritzi is back—to add to the glory of "Gloriana."

A LETTER TO MY PATRONS Dear Friends:

At the Pastime Theater tomorrow there will be one of the biggest features of our entire season. TOM MOORE, who captivated all America in "Just For Tonight" and "Thirty A Week," now appears in a brand new production, "GO WEST, YOUNG MAN," by Willard Mack, directed by Harry Beaumont.

This is a story of a tenderfoot who conquered a town and won the girl of his dreams.

It's a dashing drama of adventure and romance—filled to the brim with the joy of living and loving.

Tom Moore will thrill and delight you in this new play and you'll want to rise from your seat and help him win the beautiful girl who is struggling to free herself from the gold thieves of the picturesque West.

It's a Goldwyn Picture! Cordially yours, CHAS. TRIEBEL.
